

BPSA 1st Annual Conference
June 24th –25th 2004
hosted by the
Centre for Ethics, Equity and Sport
University of Gloucestershire
Oxstalls Campus, Gloucester, UK
Draft Conference Schedule (subject to change)

Please note that each Session will take place in 3 rooms, one presentation to take place in each.

Thursday 24th June

- 10.00 – 10.30 Registration and coffee (LC103)
- 10.30 – 10.45 Introduction (LC103)
Dr Mike McNamee, Chair BPSA
- 10.45 – 11.45 Keynote 1 (LC103)
Prof Lev Kreft
Days of Youth: political aesthetics and physical culture
- 11.45 – 12.30 Session 1
Dr Carlton Brick & Dr Paul Norcross (LC102)
Trivial Pursuits: Christopher Lasch & the degradation of sport, a critical reappraisal
- Dr Mike McNamee (LC103)*
Positivism, Popper, and Paradigms; some misconceptions in sports and exercise sciences
- Dr Corry Cropper (LC113)*
Playing at Monarchy: Eugène Chapus, bourgeois champion of the second empire
- 12.30 – 1.45 Lunch
- 1.45 – 2.30 Session 2
Emma Sherry, Prof David Shilbury, Dr Greg Wood (LC102)
Conflict of Interest: an interesting conflict?
- Linnet Fawcett (LC103)*
In-Between Spaces in Sport: corporeal re-creation and the trick skater
- Rona Brodie (LC113)*
The Moral Potential of Sports: a philosophical analysis

- 2.30 – 3.15 Session 3
Dr Markus Lilenthal (LC102)
The Dialectics of Doping: towards an ethics of modern sport
- Dr Heather Sheridan (LC103)*
Sport and Human Potential: an ethical discussion
- Dr Leslie Howe (LC113)*
Vicarious Pain and Genuine Pleasure: some reflections on spectator transformation of meaning in sport
- 3.15 - 4.00 Session 4
Arno Müller (LC102)
Is Doping Suicide?: considerations on sports and death
- Dr Carwyn Jones (LC103)*
Character, Virtue and Physical Education
- Emily Ryall (LC113)*
Using Sport as a Political Instrument
- 4.00 – 4.30 Coffee
- 4.30 – 5.15 Session 5
Kirsty-Ann Burroughs (LC102)
The Significance of Endurance on Women’s Distance Running: a contextual exploration
- Dr Ivo Jirasek (LC103)*
Experience and Heidegger’s Analysis of Authentic Existence
- Dr Greg Wood, Emma Sherry, Prof David Shilbury (LC113)*
Gentlemen professionals: the applicability of codes of conduct to international sport
- 5.15 – 6.00 Session 6
Dr Jim Parry (LC103)
Alain and Dwain, Rio and Greg – Not Guilty?
- Dr Sotaro Honda (LC102)*
The Olympic Way: an exploration of problems faced by teachers of Kendo when a traditional culture is challenged by modern pressures
- 6.00 – 6.45 BPSA AGM (LC103)
- 7.00 – 9.00 Conference dinner (Oxstalls Refectory)

Friday 25th June

9.00 – 9.45

Session 7

Alan Dougherty (LC102)

Friluftsliv as a Possible Guide to Wilder Area Sport in the UK?

Andrew Bloodworth (LC103)

The Psychological Concepts of Well-Being and Quality of Life: a philosophical analysis

Brian Charles (LC113)

Violence in Rugby Union and a Review of Institutional Responsibilities for Protection and Redress of Rugby Union Players

9.45 – 10.30

Session 8

Prof Jerzy Kosiewicz (LC102)

Aesthetical Aspects of Sport Activity

Dr Andrew Edgar (LC103)

What is Art? James and Collingwood on Sport

Keith Thompson (LC113)

Offside and Involvement

10.30 – 11.00

Coffee

11.00 – 11.45

Session 9

Dr Scott Fleming & Gill Richards (LC102)

Blowing the Whistle on 'Sledging' in Elite Women's Cricket

Dr Leon Culbertson (LC103)

The Paradox of Bad Faith and the Technological Attitude to the Sporting Body

Dr Irena Martinková (LC113)

Dialogue with our "Body"

11.45 – 12.45

Keynote 2 (LC103)

Dr Stephen Mumford

Watching Sport

12.45 – 1.00

Conference Close (LC103)

Dr Mike McNamee, Chair BPSA