

4th Annual Conference - March 22-24th 2007
Department of Philosophy, University of Leeds

Programme

Thursday 22nd March

9.30 - 12.00 Pre-conference Seminar, hosted by the IDEA CETL
"Teaching Sports Ethics"

Thursday 22nd March

12.00 - 13.30 Registration and coffee/tea (Foyer)

1.30 - 1.45 Introduction
Mike McNamee, Chair BPSA

1.45 - 3.00 Keynote 1:
Jeffrey Fry
Making a Comeback

3.00 - 3.30 Tea and Coffee (and Registration)

3.30 - 4.15 Parallel 1
A Jim Parry
Supplements – food or dope?
B Kutte Jonnson
What Is the Point of Fair Play?

4.30 - 5.15 Parallel 2
A Stephen Mumford
Virtue and Vice in Sport
B Martin Hardie
*Pro Cycling, Crime and Biopower –
Doping control as law's administration of the illegalisms of the body.*

5:15 - 5:30 Local organiser advice for evening

5.30 onwards Free time - dinner in Leeds

Friday 23rd March

- 8.45 - 9.45 Registration and coffee/tea (Foyer)
- 9.45 - 10.30 Parallel 3
- A Jerzy Kosiewicz
Considerations on Aggression in Sport
- B Andrew Bloodworth
The contribution of physical activity to well-being
- C Emily Ryall
*Defining the Human (II):
Separating mind & body, and avoiding category mistakes*
- 10.30 - 11.00 Coffee/tea (Foyer)
- 11.00 - 11.45 Parallel 4
- A Stephen Howell and Mike McNamee
Sports talk: Public consultation in the development of community sports policy in the UK
- B Margaret Whitehead
*Squaring the circle -
Women, Physical Literacy and Western Patriarchal Culture*
- C Gregory Platchias
*Olympism and the Olympic Games:
Two Contradictory Goals of the Olympic Movement*
- 11.45 - 12.30 Parallel 5
- A Paul Downward
*Equity, Efficiency and Values:
Ethics and Economic Resource Allocation in Sport*
- B Carwyn Jones and Scott Fleming
Restoring the 'Moral Balance': Enforcers, 'hard men' and referees.
- C Alun Hardman and Hwyl Iorwerth
*Sport, Citizenship and National Identity:
Towards a Normative Account of International Representation*
- 12.30 - 2.00 Lunch (not included)
BPSA Executive meeting
- 2.00 – 2.45 Parallel 6
- A Alan Dougherty
Climbing as Art
- B Lev Kreft
Drama in Theatre and in Sport
- C David Howe
Paralympism: ideology and praxis within Paralympic Athletics

- 2.45 - 3.30 Parallel 7
- A Leslie Howe
Finding Oneself in the Wilderness
- B Jacqueline Allen-Collinson
'Grounding' the Phenomenology of Sensuous Sporting Bodies
- C Gabriela Tymowski
Moral Progress, Interest Conflicts and the Ethical Treatment of Animals in Sport
- 3.30 - 4.00 Coffee/tea (Foyer)
- 4.00 - 4.45 Parallel 8
- A Ivo Jirasek
Labyrinth as a challenge to wander
- B Ask Vest Christiansen
A Clean Amateur Makes a Good Professional
- C Lisa Edwards
Scoring own goals in gender research: A philosophical critique of the dominant research methodology.
- 4.45 – 6.15 BPSA AGM (LT)
- 7.00 – 9.30 Conference dinner (TBC)

Saturday 24th March

- 9.30 – 10.15 Parallel 8
- A Irena Martinkova
Quality versus Quantity in Movement Activities
- B Leon Culbertson
Children, Sport and Moral Education: The Moral Laboratory Thesis Revisited
- 10:15 – 11.00 Parallel 9
- A Andrew Edgar
Three Ways to Watch a Sports Video
- B Baris Sentuna
Genetically modified athletes: a story of philosophical parenting.
- 11.00 – 11.30 Coffee/tea (Foyer)
- 11.30 – 12.45 Keynote 2:
Mike McNamee
Ethical issues regarding human enhancement technologies: Therapy, Enhancement and the traditional goals of medicine in sport
- 12.45 – 13.00 Conference Close
Chair BPSA